HOAX ATTACKS! NF BLAMED!

MANY OF the most horrific so-called "racial attacks" on Asians and Blacks in Britain are in fact the work of other immigrants, or even the victims themselves. Political squabbles in the Indian sub-continent; bogus insurance claims; rivalry at noisy West Indian parties, family feuds, and even the pre-exam nerves of Asian school-children - all have led to violence for which "White racists" and the NF have been wrongly blamed.

The arrest in London of five Tamils from northern Sri Lanka for the murder of three other Tamils in a petrol bomb attack in Newham, East London, is just the most recent of a wave of such incidents in the last few years.

LINKED

The men arrested were linked to an extremist Tamil group using the ever-growing Tamil population in Britain to raise funds for a guerrilla war on their island. The Tamils emigrated to Ceylon from India in the last century and now want to establish their own state in the northern part of the island and break away from the Sinhalese majority.

Many of the Tamils living in Britain give money to the rebels voluntarily, but the group who died had refused to. They were ordered to pay £25 per week each to the terrorists' funds and warned that if they refused their houses would be petrol bombed. They were also told that the police would never catch their attackers because they would be too busy looking for White racists.

ATTACKED

When the small terraced house was attacked on Friday 14th November, there were nine Tamil men packed into the bedrooms - just a few of the several thousand Tamils who have flooded into the area in the last two years. Three of them had been fire-bombed out of another house nearby at the start of the week.

Yet in spite of the obvious motivation behind the attack, everyone from the Commission for Racial Equality to the police, from the Home Secretary to the press and television, immediately joined together to accuse Whites of carrying out a racial attack.

The resulting hysteria led to hundreds of angry immigrants and Marxists marching to the local police station to demand the arrest of the "racist murderers", and tension between Asians and Whites rose sharply.

Mr Nish Kanwar, a Marxist extremist working with the Labour party, funded Newham Monitoring Project demanded police action against White racists, warning that if it wasn't taken "black people will take action to defend themselves."

"RACIAL HATRED

Home Secretary Douglas Hurd expressed his "outrage" and issued a statement that "attacks which are motivated by racial hatred are always odious."

House where three died in Asian fire-bomb attack. Once again, "White racists" were wrongly blamed by media.

The Commission for Racial Equality said that the incident was "yet another to add to an increasing catalogue of attacks, sometimes murders, against the Asian community."

And then, just as various M.P.'s were queuing up to demand a ban on the National Front, the five Asians were arrested and charged with murder.

Almost immediately, the media dropped their coverage of the event. The few little mentions that the arrests received could do little to offset the impression given by the headlines and pictures of a few days before that the men were the victims of a wave of White racial attacks.

WORST EXAMPLE

The worst earlier example of this was the Deptford Fire "Massacre" in 1980, when 13 young Blacks died in a fire at a party in South London. The capitalist press and communist extremists alike joined together to blame White racists and the National Front for the murders. 10,000 Blacks rioted and looted in central London "in protest" and attacks by Blacks on NF street activities increased.

Yet very little was said to put the record straight when the police eventually revealed the name of the Black who had started the fire in a fit of jealousy.

Similarly, many people remember the lurid headlines about the Asian schoolboy who claimed that he had "NF" carved into his chest with a knife by a gang of Whites. But how many even saw the tiny follow-up reports when he was charged with wasting police time when it emerged that he had done it himself in order to miss an exam?

Many other attacks on Asians are the result of religious or family feuds, while fire-bomb attacks on Asian property often bring rich rewards in insurance payments to the owner. And in every case, the National Front gets the blame.

So open your eyes to media lies. Mass Coloured immigration certainly has led to an increase of violence, but that has nothing to do with the British people as a whole or the National Front in particular. The "growing wave of racial attacks" which we hear so much about is a HOAX!

JUST A MATTER OF TIME

THIS YEAR has now seen two environmental disasters in Europe, at the Chernobyl nuclear reactor in Russia and the poisoning of the Rhine after a fire at the Sandoz chemical warehouse in Basle, Switzerland. But although both of these happened abroad, it is a frightening fact that either of them could have taken place just as easily in Britain. There are literally dozens of places in this country where such a disaster could occur at any moment. It is just a matter of time.

The discovery of leaks, cracks and reactor faults in nuclear power stations in Britain is an almost daily event. Some of the older plants operating here actually have poorer safety provisions than the Chernobyl one. But the tight security and powerful propaganda machine of British Nuclear Fuels make it impossible to get an accurate picture of just how dangerous this very expensive and unnecessary technology really is.

BNF and the CEBG were prepared to cover up a serious fault in the Sizewell nuclear power station in Suffolk in order to persuade the public inquiry going on at the time to accept their plans for a second plant on the same site. With a long record of such deceit, the nuclear industry clearly cannot be relied upon to tell us the truth.

Just a matter of time.....

The threat of a repeat performance of the Rhine mercury poisoning disaster in a British river is even greater. Tons of the deadly mercury compound ethoxy-ethol were released into the Rhine after a fire in a storage warehouse in Basle. Within a few days, the whole river was biologically dead - from Switzerland to the North Sea.

POISONING

Many towns are surviving on emergency water supplies. For hundreds of miles the river banks stink with the rotting corpses of millions of eels, fish and waterfowl. Scientists estimate that it will take 30 years for the river to recover. The fishing industry and riverside farmers face ruin.

Chemical companies in Britain have fallen over themselves in their rush to explain why "it can't happen here". For one thing, the offending chemical is banned in Britain. But it is also banned in Switzerland and Sandoz have so far been unable to explain why they were storing tons of it in a Swiss warehouse which lacked even the most basic anti-fire safety precautions.

And in any case, a very similar mercuric oxide fungicide which is manufactured by Sandoz is widely stored and sold in Britain under the brand name Santar.

ENVIRONMENTAL DISASTER

Nor is this the only capitalist company which is reluctant to allow a little environmental disaster to get in the way of bigger profits. May and Baker is a subsidiary of the French chemical giant Rhone-Poulenc. One of their main factories in Britain is in Norwich on the river Wensum.

The plant uses large quantities of mercury and has been discharging waste into the river for years. As a result, eels caught many miles downstream of the plant - and sold for human consumption - contain over twice the EEC maximum permitted amount of mercury.

Since mercury builds up in the food-chain over many years, this poses a deadly threat to the eco-system of the entire Norfolk Broads, an area recognized as being of outstanding scientific interest and great natural beauty.

May and Baker also have a large depot near the Thames in Dagenham, East London, where a leak would have a catastrophic effect on the water supply of our capital city.

Nor is it just the south of England that is at risk. Until the Rhine was biologically murdered at the start of the month, the Mersey was Europe's most polluted river estuary. It has toxic salts in free suspension and these are even more concentrated in sludge on the river bed.

These poisons are taken in by bacteria feeding on the sludge, which are then eaten by worms, which are eaten by eels and fish which are eaten by birds and man. In this way the poison is passed up the food chain into our food.

DUMPED

This process led to disaster in Japan in 1956, when the giant Chisso Chemical Corporation dumped mercury-based waste in the sea near the town of Minamata. As the fish fed on the waste and the population fed on the fish, the death toll among local people rose.

Ten years later over 230 deaths and 1,250 serious permanent injuries, including brain damage, showed the terrible human cost of greed for profit at any price.

The deadly impact of chemical pollution has been seen more recently in Seveso in Italy and at the Union Carbide plant at Bhopal in India.

Such a disaster has not yet happened in Britain - but it hadn't happened in Switzerland until this month. Unless massive improvements in safety procedures are forced on chemical companies now, it is only a matter of time before some British city suffers a similar fate.

green murder

BRITAIN'S natural heritage has been seriously damaged by capitalist farming techniques and development projects since 1945. To show just how far the destruction of our "Green and Pleasant Land" has gone, we continue the 'green murder' list begun in NFN 80. It makes depressing reading, but if it stirs Nationalists to action in the defence of our countryside, then it will have served its purpose.

NORTHUMBERLAND

33% loss or damage of Sites of Special Scientific Interest (SSSI's) in 15 years.

NOTTINGHAMSHIRE

SHROPSHIRE

19 prime wildlife sites destroyed in 18 months.

STAFFORDSHIRE

25% of SSSI's damaged in 10 years.

SUFFOLK

70% of Breckland Heath lost (part in Norfolk). Half the natural features of the County lost in 35 years.

SUSSEX

25% loss or damage in 15 years.

WORCESTERSHIRE

35% loss of ponds in 55 years. 17% of SSSI's damaged in 25 years.

YORKSHIRE

Wakefield District has lost over 23% of woodland in 17 years.

These figures are not unusual. Every area of the country has been hit as badly. Our natural heritage is being destroyed in a scramble for short-term profit.

DEAR EDITOR

P.O. BOX 41.
NORWICH,
NORFOLK,
NR3 2AH.

NFN is pleased and honoured to publish this letter from Belfast NF stalwart Andy McLorie. In our last issue, we reported how Andy and other Belfast activists were framed by the RUC and forced to endure "internment by remand" in Maggie Thatcher's anti-loyalist POW camp in Crumlin Road. They have now been released on bail.

Dear Comrades,

Six months after having been placed on remand in Crumlin Road Prison, Belfast, I am at last home once more and free to put pen to paper.

Many, many fellow patriots from throughout the United Kingdom wrote to me, both people I already knew and others unknown to me who simply share my love and hope for my country and dedication to the Cause. It is these people that I have in mind as I write this. I wish to assure them publicly that their correspondence was greatly appreciated - perhaps more than they realise. Your best wishes, support and kindness was food for my morale and fueled my determination to shake off the millstone which the State had put around my neck, falsely confident that I would bow under the pressure.

ASSAULTED

Though repeatedly assaulted by RUC officers and the CID, and kept in cold and disgusting conditions with bad food, the knowledge that so many people out there were thinking of us gave me and my fellow NF internees a great extra strength.

I was able to reply to each and every letter I received, but here is the crux of the matter: I wondered then, and still do, just how many of my letters got past the deliberate acts of interference and sabotage by the prison authorities. So if anyone wrote but did not receive a reply, please rest assured that one was written and sent. Please accept this letter instead as a show of my gratitude.

My other concern is over any letters which arrived at the prison after my bail release. After enquiring about these I was left in little doubt that they would not be redirected to me, nor would I be allowed to call in and collect them.

NOT THE LAST

I am of course not the first, nor will I be the last, of our comrades to face such extreme State repression. But having now had first hand experience of it, may I ask everyone reading this to remember two things:

1) If you find yourself in a similar position SAY NOTHING when being questioned. Read and re-read the article in NFN issue 78 Arrest and Interrogation. Following the advice in there and staying silent is your only hope of freedom.

2) Always write to any of our comrades in prison throughout Britain as soon as you hear of their plight. Take it from me that you will be doing much more than simply writing and posting a letter. Start now by writing to Councillor George Seawright (see page 8 - Editor).

On behalf of myself and the other NF lads imprisoned in Crumlin Road with me - Peter and Paul Bain and Patrick and John MacKay - thank you one and all.

May I end by urging everyone to strive even harder and check that we are all doing our utmost. Let us achieve the Great Britain we so earnestly thirst for, the Great Britain our children so justly deserve, sooner rather than later.

Ever your comrade in our struggle,
Andy McLorie.
Belfast,
ULSTER.

N.W.A.

ALTHOUGH Andy McLorie has now been released on bail, he has lost his job as a teacher and is in serious financial difficulties as a direct result of his unjust imprisonment.

The NF's Nationalist Welfare Association must help him at this difficult time, but can only do so if people like YOU send in donations or help to raise the funds needed to support our activists.

Several of the activists and committee members in Oldham have also been fined as a result of tension and clashes between Asians and White youth in the town on the morning of the banned Oldham march. Their unit Chairman, John Butler, has been fined £100 for carrying "offensive weapons", even though he and other members there have been attacked repeatedly by armed Asian thugs in the past without any action being taken by the police.

Up and down the country, brave NF activists face hostility from Reds, Blacks and the police every week. If you can't get out and join them, do your bit by helping the NWA to help them if they are fined or imprisoned.

Please send whatever you can afford to the NATIONALIST WELFARE ASSOCIATION, c/o P O Box 228, Manor Park, London E.12.

FRONT LINE ACTION

BARKING

AS the first anniversary of the treacherous Anglo-Irish Agreement loomed, Barking Branch held an "Independence for Ulster" demo. Over 30 Barking members assembled in the East Street shopping precinct, where East London Regional Organiser Dave Durrant addressed local shoppers on a loud-hailer.

Placards, flags and a large banner enticed an enthusiastic crowd into buying £19 worth of N F News. Many people made enquiries about the movement and two joined on the spot!

One thousand "Independence for Ulster" leaflets were distributed during the afternoon.

"Anti-Fascist Action" attempted to distribute a smear leaflet, but an unknown member of the public took offence at their lie-mongering and snatched their leaflets, throwing them into the air. The Reds slunk off and were not seen again.

The highly successful activity finally ended with the sale of another £7 of NFN in the "local."

2,500 MARCHERS made the National Front's Remembrance Day parade through London on Sunday 9th November an outstanding success.

A fine flag party and the London Drum Corps led the well-ordered column to a non-denominational service in memory of the war dead of Britain, including Ulster, and South Africa and Rhodesia. The wreaths were laid by NF Chairman Nick Griffin and Mr Peter Williams, on behalf of NF ex-servicemen.

At the rally which followed, the enthusiastic crowd heard speeches by NF Executive members Pat Harrington, Phil Andrews, Derek Holland, Nick Griffin and a member of the movement's Central Ulster Committee, who received a particularly warm welcome. There was not time for the usual "Dutch Auction", but the collection nevertheless raised £378.

Trouble had been threatened from three different groups. A Marxist mob of about 1,000 students, immigrants, and homosexuals attacked a group of 60 NF supporters on their way to the parade. To their surprise, however, the Nationalists fought back and chased the entire Red rabble down the street.

EFFECTIVE STEWARDING

The reactionary splinter group using the name "NF Support Group" to try to con money out of the public had also vowed privately to cause chaos, but effective stewarding kept the ring-leaders off the march and maintained the dignity of the occasion.

Before the march, the police had used the Red and Reactionary "threats" to try to force the National Front to abandon its traditional assembly point and route and to accept a pitifully short alternative. The conditions which they sought to impose amounted to a virtual ban on the activity. But when it was made clear that the NF's entire Directorate and hundreds of its members were prepared to be arrested for using the traditional route, the police changed their minds at the last minute.

Their bullying bluster was replaced by a sensibly co-operative attitude and together with the excellent discipline of the NF marchers, this ensured that the whole day was as peaceful as it was successful.

EGHAM and STAINES

EGHAM & STAINES Group, the newest NF sales unit, has made a remarkable impact within the first few weeks of its existence and promises to be one of the most active units of the Party before very long. The Group's inaugural meeting, chaired by West London Regional Organiser Mark Alder and addressed by Executive Council member Phil Andrews, was attended by nearly thirty people - quite a considerable feat for a new unit in a small town such as Egham.

Since the meeting the new unit has been busy spreading the Nationalist message throughout Egham and Staines, and has established a regular and highly successful sales pitch in Egham High Street. An "anti-racist" leafletting activity by West London "Anti-Fascist Action" was terminated prematurely when they were chased along the High Street and into the safety of the local police station by angry members of the public. This follows AFA's miserable failure in Hounslow, which caused them to turn their attentions to little Egham, where they mistakenly thought that they might find the local NF a soft touch.

A few weeks after the formation of the new unit, a group of about 30 Asians and Marxist students attempted to stage a late-night demonstration outside the home of Egham Group organiser Rob Gray. But once again, members of the public were on hand to put the cowardly Red rabble to flight, although one of them managed to break a window before fleeing off into the night.

TROUBLE

When the Group's treasurer, Martin Lyndon, visited the local college to establish who had been responsible for organising the trouble, the trembling Student Union Welfare Officer pleaded that none of his children had been involved. After Mr. Lyndon left, however, they organised to demand that he be prevented from entering the college on all future occasions. As Mr. Lyndon is the postman who delivers the college mail each morning, they had to ask the Post Office to get someone else to take over his delivery. Unfortunately for them, Mr. Lyndon's colleagues have refused to deliver post to the college if he is barred from the premises. So a member of the college staff now has to trek into town in the mornings to collect the mail himself!

So great is the impact that the new NF Group has had that the local Mayor has asked to meet officers of the new unit to discuss the growing wave of racial violence in Egham and other areas destined to be affected by the overspill of Asian immigrants from West London. The words "Don't let Egham become another Hounslow" have already begun to appear around the town. The Egham & Staines NF and a growing number of local people are determined not to.

WHAT IS TO BE DONE?

THIS column is specially designed to keep all N.F. officials well informed of forthcoming activities and to remind them of what needs to be done over the next two weeks.

All N.F. officials and activists must therefore make it a top priority to read this column carefully every issue and then to ACT on the information.

* ORGANISERS CONFERENCE. Sat. 10th Jan. All day. London. All unit Organisers, Treasurers and Secretaries must attend this vital and exciting event to co-ordinate our efforts in 1987. Others with the prior permission of the Directorate only. This is a cadre meeting.

* GENERAL ELECTION - A FEW MONTHS AWAY. NFN Support Units raising funds for NF candidates must reach the target of £750 in their election fund by the end of April.

Waltham Forest Branch raised £1,000 at their last meeting in a magnificent "Dutch Auction". Not many areas can match this, but EVERY unit MUST run at least one car-boot sale and a local social evening before Christmas. Croydon Branch regularly raise around £70 a time at car boot sales. All you have to do is go to one to get an idea of prices, then collect unwanted items from friends and supporters.

* NEW NF STRUCTURE. Read the centre pages carefully. Explain the changes at your next meeting and collect details of members who wish to apply to become candidate cadres to be handed in on the next lit. run.

* URGENTLY WANTED: Ulster Volunteers. Mainland activists who are prepared to go to Ulster for two weeks of paper-selling, posterling, etc, should contact a member of the Directorate. Lodgings and travel costs will be paid from sales money. Get where the action is - help build the NF in Ulster.

* LITERATURE SUPPLIES must be paid for CASH ON DELIVERY. So must Bookshop supplies (if you have no credit) which should be ordered by phone in advance. No cheques. This issue was held up because the Birmingham treasurer stopped one cheque and bounced another. This is not acceptable. No cash - no goods.

* NFN SALES. Barking Branch have doubled their order over the last few months. Has YOUR unit yet met the target of a 25% sales increase by the New Year? If not, more effort and new pitches are needed. Get to work in your General Election constituency.

* LOCAL P.O. BOXES must be opened by every unit. A phone line and Answer-Phone must be set up in each region before the General Election. This will then make inquiries quicker and less liable to State interference.

ORGANIZING THE MOVEMENT

IN THIS issue's special centre page feature we publish the main details of the new structure of the National Front. This is the result of major changes to the movement's constitution agreed by an overwhelming majority at last month's Annual General Meeting.

The underlying aim of the changes is to turn the National Front from just another political party, seeking to swell its ranks with quite literally anyone who can be tempted to pay a few quid for a membership card, into an elite movement. From now on, membership of the NF is a PRIVILEGE to be EARNED by dedication and ability, not an automatic right.

The opportunity to apply for membership of the National Front will continue to be open to every White person in the British Isles, but only those who show themselves worthy of the honour will be accepted. Social background, levels of education, wealth and power are NOT the criteria by which candidates will be judged. A clear understanding of revolutionary Nationalist ideology; a commitment to regular political work; a correct moral attitude to the Struggle, and willingness to make sacrifices of time or money - these are the things which matter.

WARM BODIES

The days when desperation for a few extra "warm bodies" on the membership list led the leadership and activists of the National Front to put up with little cliques of drunks, nihilists, reactionaries and inadequates are over.

Yet the changes are not designed to create an "airy fairy" club cut off from our broader base of popular sympathy. There are many thousands of perfectly good people who for one reason or another cannot or do not want to become cadre members of the NF, but who still have plenty to contribute to the Cause. They are urged to join up as NF News Supporters, who will organize themselves in geographical areas rather as NF Groups and Branches have done up until now.

RESOLVED

By adopting this new structure, the National Front has resolved the old dilemma of "quality or quantity?". A system which puts control firmly into the hands of the best and most active, but which still finds a place for the less dedicated, gives the movement the best of both worlds.

It was only logical that the National Front should follow up its development of revolutionary nationalist ideology with the adoption of a revolutionary structure. Readers are urged to study the report and decide where they fit in best, then redouble their efforts to help build the NF. At last we have the right ideas and the right structure to create a power-winning machine. Now what we need is the work.

IMPORTANT NOTICE; Whenever possible, hand correspondence for the NF, NF News or the Bookshops to your local NF contact, so that it can be delivered through the movement's internal postal system. This is very important when dealing with subscriptions, orders and membership payments.

If you do have to use the Post Office network, ALWAYS use RECORDED DELIVERY and keep your receipt safely.

While the constant interference with our post is irritating, this attempt to disrupt the NF is a tribute to its growing effectiveness. So rather than moaning about it, all NF members and supporters must accept the hard work and discipline needed to make our internal communications network an efficient alternative.

In order to make room for a full explanation of the new structure adopted by the National Front, the report of the AGM itself will be held over until the next issue.

BUILD

CADRES / CANDIDATES

THE FUTURE of the National Front will henceforth be decided by CADRE MEMBERS. The days of the armchair Nationalist, who turns up at the AGM to tell the activists and leadership what they should be doing and then goes back to sleep for another year, are over. Only cadres have the right to stand for election to the Directorate, to vote in Directorate elections and to vote at AGMs. This privilege is not easily won. In order to become and remain a cadre, you have to show real commitment and to fulfill all of the following requirements:

* Take part in at least two political or N.F. fund-raising activities each week. These must be with the local NFN Supporters unit if there is one. If there is not, or if a cadre has a genuine reason for not being active on the streets - such as age, health or truly sensitive job - the individual concerned must discuss his or her position with the Regional Political Officer (RPO) and find alternative ways in which to benefit the movement. Regular reports on this work must then be submitted to the RPO.

* Pay membership dues of £10 per month (£6 for unemployed, who are also required to give the Movement an average of 2 days/month free labour, and £6 for pensioners and those in full-time education). Work done by unemployed cadres will depend on their talents, but may include labouring on NF-controlled property, clerical tasks, helping to produce NF publications or taking part in political work in new areas.

Each cadre will receive ten copies of NFN per fortnight to sell or distribute (though not on NFN unit sales). The face value of these is £4, so if all are sold it brings the cost of membership down substantially. So although the dues are a big increase on previous fees, they are still within the reach of any serious Nationalist. Married couples get a 50% reduction on the second partner's dues.

* Attend at least two two-day organizational and ideological seminars each year. Pass an annual ideological "refresher" course run at these by the Selection & Training Department, which plans to hold at least four such events each year, in different parts of the country.

* Attend two out of four of the quarterly cadre meetings each year

(also to be held in different parts of Britain).

* "Adopt" and assist in the education of any candidate cadres allocated to you by the Regional Political Officer.

The membership rights of, and disciplinary procedures for, cadres are the same as those for Voting Members at present.

Only individuals who have been cadres (or formerly Voting members of the NF) for an unbroken period of at least four years prior to nomination day may stand for election to the Directorate.

CANDIDATE CADRES must fulfill all the qualifications set for cadres throughout their whole year as candidates. To become a candidate cadre every individual must be proposed by three cadre members and be approved by the Chairman of the NF's Selection and Training Department, who will take into consideration the recommendations of the RPO.

During the trial year, during which time he or she may not vote at cadre meetings or in Directorate elections, the candidate cadre must fulfill the same requirements and pay the same dues as a cadre and must in addition:

* Attend three two-day candidate training seminars. The candidate's year will date from the first of these attended.

* Read and show a clear understanding of 12 essential books as directed by the Selection & Training Dept.

* Achieve individual targets set by the Selection & Training Dept. at the end of the first candidate training seminar. Provide written reports on this work to the RPO as required.

At the end of the candidate's year, the Selection & Training Dept. and RPO will present joint report and a recommendation for or against the granting of cadre status to the next cadre meeting. All cadres present will vote on each individual, with a two-thirds majority being necessary for acceptance.

If a candidate is rejected, he or she must wait at least one year before reapplying for candidate cadre status. Each individual may only make one such reapplication.

Disciplinary arrangements are the same as for cadres, save that a candidate cadre may be suspended by any cadre, using the usual procedure.

NEWLY recruited members of the public and nationalists who for one reason or another do not wish, or are not suitable, to become cadres, will be involved as NF NEWS SUPPORTERS. These supporters will then be organized in sales units geographically, as NF Branches and Groups have been up until now.

NFN Supporters will pay £3 per month. In return for this they will receive 5 papers per fortnight to distribute as they wish. The cover value of these is £2, so while those with a little spare money but little time can leave them in public places or give them to friends, the unemployed can sell them (not on unit sales) to regain most of their monthly dues.

Supporters are also expected to take part in an average of one political or fund-raising activity per week. Enforcing this will be the responsibility of the local NFN Supporters unit organiser, who will also arrange for the distribution of their papers and the collection of dues. £2 each month will be passed on to the NF nationally to pay for the papers, while £1 per month will go to local unit funds.

NFN Supporters may apply to become candidate cadres after one year, provided that they are proposed by three cadres (arrangements will be made in the case of Supporters in outlying areas who do not know any cadres).

A Supporter may at any time be expelled by majority vote of the Directorate for any reason whatsoever. A Supporter may also be expelled by the unanimous vote of the local committee, provided that they immediately inform a member of the Executive Council in writing of the circumstances leading to their action. In such a case, the Supporter has an automatic right of appeal to the Directorate, which must be exercised in writing within 28 days.

SUPPORTERS CARDS

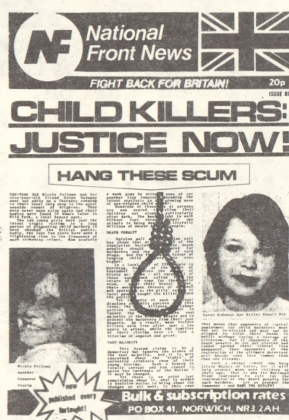

Supporters membership cards will be produced nationally and distributed to local organisers to issue direct on payment of a £1 registration fee and the first month's dues. The local Organiser will keep a simple record to ensure that all Supporters are up to date with their dues payments. Any who lapse in their payments for more than two months will be deemed to have resigned.

All Supporters in the area will have the right to vote and stand in the elections for their unit committee. This will comprise of organiser, secretary and treasurer, one of whom will chair local meetings. NFN Supporters units will be set up by permission of the Directorate and must distribute a minimum of 50 copies of NF News per fortnight, over and above those which are taken by members in their area.

Each unit will pay a quarterly levy to NF News to help finance the production and expansion of the paper. Supporters units will also take over all the activity organization and electoral work of NF Branches and Groups. The assets of all units shall continue to be held by local officials in trust for the elected Directorate of the National Front.

OUTLYING AREAS

Individuals in areas not covered by organized units may become NFN Supporters by sending in £5 to register and receive their card and an Activity pack to start off political work in their area. To remain as Supporters they must then pay £3 per month by Standing Order or National Girobank Transcash and distribute the papers they receive in return. They are entitled to attend any meeting, local or national, of NFN Supporters.

I WISH to register as an NF NEWS SUPPORTER and receive five copies of Britain's Number One Nationalist newspaper per fortnight. I understand that this entitles me to attend local and national NFN Supporters meetings.

I have paid my first £3 to my local organiser/have filled in the appropriate details on the Standing Order form and passed it to my Bank/will pay by the Post Office Girobank Transcash system from January. (Delete as applicable).

Nationalism

Spiritual Revolution

IN Part One of this series, we learnt that the distinguishing characteristic of Nationalism is the fact that it is an essentially spiritual creed. Whilst Capitalism and Communism dominate a man's life with the scramble for consumer goods, technological gadgets, being one of the "in" crowd - in a word, with crass materialism - Nationalism is concerned with the redemption of the soul, the purification of the mind, and the freeing of the heart. It is through the assertion of the primacy of Spirit that the material plane of life - economic needs, daily life - is put into its true perspective.

So we believe in the primacy of Spirit - that a real Man is motivated not by greed for money or power, but by the spiritual values of Honour, Truth, Patriotism and Love. This belief has a truly revolutionary impact on Nationalism and the Nationalist.

The materialist creeds of Capitalism and Communism preach that the "salvation" of Mankind will only come through material change. For the capitalist, the highest stage of development for Man will have been achieved when his dog-eat-dog mentality has engulfed the globe, and the poor, weak and needy are pushed aside as "economically unviable". For the communist, it means arranging society in such a way that the dog-eat-dog mentality is embodied not in some bloated hard-hearted boss, but in the ruthless and impersonal vice-like grip of the State.

Both systems are founded upon the same basic idea: that a change in the structure of a society brings about a change in the nature of Man. It is the "nationalization of the means of production" that brings the 'good communist' into being; it is the "free play of market forces" that creates the globe-trotting entrepreneur.

TRUE ORDER

For the Nationalist, such views are patently absurd. The System does not make the Man; it is the Man who makes the System. This is the true order, for society exists to assist the material and spiritual progress of men, Man does not exist for economics or politics. The disorder of Capitalism and Communism can only gain ground when Man forgets that Spirit is superior to Matter, when Man refuses to exercise his free will in defence of his true interests and of the Common Good.

Nationalism does not begin with a call to adopt this economic theory or that social policy, but with a call to spiritual revolution. A Man can only be master of his situation when he is truly master of himself. This means that before the revolutionary nationalist can combat the evil of the modern world, he must first learn to combat the evil within himself.

Everywhere our society is wracked by lying, stealing and greed, but these things can only be overcome by the Man who has conquered such vices in himself. How can a man stamp out the lies of the media or the greed of the bankers if he lies to his colleagues or is intent on wealth at all costs? A nationalist who has not undergone a spiritual revolution cannot bring about National Revolution, he can only bring about a change of government personnel, something altogether different.

NEW MAN

The National Revolution can only occur when a New Man comes into existence: a man who has broken completely with the Old Order, rejecting its values and ethos, and has consecrated himself, heart, mind and soul, to the New Order.

Such a line of action is far from easy. The System preaches indulgence in all things: drink, food and drugs; it argues that the Individual stands higher than either Family or Nation. The end results of this corrosive philosophy can be seen all around us: drug addiction, exploitation of the poor, pollution, slum housing, violent crime, cruelty to animals, AIDS and sexual perversion. Such disorder is the logical consequence of any materialistic creed.

SACRIFICE AND STRUGGLE

The revolutionary nationalist, in pursuing his objective of spiritual revolution, takes a wholly different attitude. For sacrifice and struggle are central to the life of the nationalist. They are the means whereby we combat destructive self-interest with the Common Good of All; where our asceticism and moderation purges indulgence; where the easy way out is confronted by the demand for JUSTICE - whatever the cost.

The importance of the New Man, of spiritual struggle, cannot be over-estimated. The New Man is the builder of our New World - if he does not come into being where is our Revolution? And this New Man is you, the reader, for such men and women have to be moulded from the materials at hand, no matter how imperfect.

If you truly love your country and want a real future for your children, you must do all that is necessary to bring our New Order into being. But first you must change yourself so that you can change the world. Men not programmes; Action not platitudes. The sacrifice demanded of us all is enormous, but the reward is immeasurable.

AQUINAS by F.C. Coplestone. (£3.50 inc. post & packing). In a world where every 10th rate back is accorded the status of "Important Thinker" it is refreshing to return to the objective principles of Aquinas. Coplestone is a fine contemporary exponent of Thomism and should be read by all National Revolutionaries.

LEGION by Corneliu Codreanu (£2.75 inc. post & packing).

The first ever English translation of the Nest Leader's Manual - the training book of the pre-war Romanian Iron Guard.

This long-awaited book is the organizational sequel to Codreanu's inspiring For My Legionaries. Many of the passages are just as moving, while many others provide sound organizational principles and lessons from which Nationalist movements throughout Europe can still learn.

One of those rare books which is as interesting to the political activist as it is to the historian, it is steadily becoming a Nationalist best-seller in Britain. Inspiring and educational, it's a MUST for every genuine National Revolutionary.

SMALL IS POSSIBLE by E.F. Schumacher. (£8.50 inc. post & packing.) Schumacher demonstrates not only the absurdity of the "bigger the better" mentality, but also proves that the conditions for a return to smallness - for example family farms, co-operatives, small businesses - are plentiful and compelling. A serious study for serious patriots.

ULSTER (70p incl. post & packing).

Produced in support of the Ulster Defence Association. The new November issue contains an interesting article on the current situation in Northern Ireland.

The 24 page magazine contains all the usual features - digging the dirt on the enemies of Ulster in "Did You Know", news of Loyalist P.O.W.'s, Women's page, and articles by the top men in the biggest legal para-military organization in Europe.

Ulster provides a well-produced and well-argued explanation of the hardline loyalist position in the Province. It is essential reading for anyone who wishes to understand what is going on - and what is going to happen - in this troubled land.

COMMUNITY ACTION

COMMUNITY ACTION seeks to help the National Front sink local roots. Indeed, we see this as a very small step along the road to establishing a whole series of NF Advice Centres throughout the British Isles.

We want to expose local council corruption and incompetence, fight closures of schools, factories and hospitals, and campaign for decent housing and social services for our people. We also carry lots of advice on what you are entitled to in the way of benefits and consumer rights etc., as the powers that be usually try to suppress such information.

We also wish to generate a climate of self-help and community pride and care which is sadly being attacked and destroyed.

If any NF News readers think that Community Action should focus on problems or initiatives in their area, or promote, give advice on, or help their campaigns, please contact us, and send us your community news and any press cuttings.

FIGHTING FOR OUR COMMUNITIES

NF ACTION

The Residents Association was founded by Jim and in its short existence has already proved itself to be a worthy voice for the local community. This is reflected in the support and goodwill shown by many local residents towards the Association.

One of its greatest victories came when Jim and his colleagues discovered corruption in the system of housing list upgrading in the area. This led to a full police inquiry into the matter.

Jim was also asked to attend a seminar on drug abuse after he conducted a successful NF anti-drug campaign in the St. Albans area. Information resulting from this campaign led to a family of Asian drug-pushers being prosecuted.

Effective campaigns like these have enabled Jim to build a group of fellow nationalists around the Residents Association and they have become even more effective in their campaigning.

RACE-MIXING

One other notable success came when pressure was brought to bear on the local council to bring education into line with the Swann Report - a pack of lies and badly distorted statistics which advocated multi-racial and multi-cultural education.

The Residents Association forced a public meeting and their arguments against race-mixing demolished those of the supporters of the Swann report and the city's growing Bengali population. In the resulting publicity it was stated that Jim would be prosecuted under the Race Relations Act for his anti-establishment views, but these threats eventually dried up as the case would not have stood up in court and would have outraged local people.

It is pleasing to see NF members and local units having success with their community politics, and it can only inspire others to work to do even better.

If any Community Action reader would like tips on how to go about successful community campaigning, Jim Archer has offered to help with advice. Jim can be contacted c/o Community Action, P.O. Box 41, Norwich, NR3 2AH.

Not surprisingly, the Bulletin thus heavily features news and advice relating to housing, pensioners and one-parent families. It also has an excellent know your rights page.

So far the York Road/North Queen Street Community Advice Centre, and the York Road Bulletin, have not displayed any of the Red characteristics that are sadly a feature of some community groups.

As such, Community Action strongly advises all of our supporters - who are seriously involved in local community work - to contact them. They operate in an area that has many social problems. Their work should be an inspiration to all Community Action activists.

The York Road Bulletin is a community newsletter edited by Mark Whitsitt. The Bulletin is produced to support the York Road/North Queen Street Community Advice Centre, which is based at 162, North Queen Street, Belfast 15; Tel.(0232) 757459. The Advice Centre was opened because the local area had no facilities for free advice.

The York Road/North Queen Street area has many problems. It has a considerable number of derelict houses which have been vandalised by glue-sniffers who spend most of their time there. Another major problem is the lack of suitable housing for pensioners and one-parent families.

The York Rd ULSTER ADVICE AND ACTION Bulletin

Have you a gripe about your local council? Is your local school, factory or hospital being closed down? Do you live in bad housing conditions? Then contact your local NF Organiser, NF News papersellers, or Community Action, and we'll fight on your behalf. (Please enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope for a reply).

FIGHT BACK FOR BRITAIN!

ISSUE 82

TREASON - 1 year on -

A YEAR has now passed since Margaret Thatcher signed away Ulster's liberties in the infamous Hillsborough Agreement which gave Dublin an ever growing role in the government of Ulster. We are now ruled by the unelected dictatorship of Tom King and Peter Barry.

The London/Dublin junta which now runs Ulster is as unacceptable to loyalists today as it was when it was first set up a year ago. The attempts of the junta (and their apologists and fellow travellers in the Alliance Party, the Belfast Telegraph and most of the media) to break the back of loyalist resistance to the Hillsborough sell-out have failed.

The fact that loyalist opposition to the treacherous Hillsborough deal has remained solid despite the onslaught of the Northern Ireland Office's powerful lying propaganda machine is excellent. The fact that RUC repression has had to be turned against loyalists (including the Ulster NF) speaks volumes for their total lack of convincing arguments. Ulster still says "No" and MEANS "No" to Dublin interference in her internal affairs. We still refuse to accept rule by a full control of the country for ourselves. If the present Unionist leadership haven't got the guts to take this action, they should do the decent thing and stand aside for the people who have.

INDEPENDENCE - OUR ONLY OPTION

The current argument over whether "devolution" or "integration" would be the better way to govern the province is irrelevant to the present struggle. The Campaign for Equal Citizenship is really quite correct in its analysis of the evils of the despotism which has passed for government in Ulster since 1972. The National Front has long argued that Ulster should at last be totally integrated into British political life. And we are still the only British political party to organize throughout all parts of the United Kingdom.

But we nevertheless have to accept that the Hillsborough Betrayal has changed the position of Ulster completely. The entire British Establishment wants to cut us off from Britain and ease Ulster "gently" into the clutches of the Irish Republic. This is why none of them are interested in organizing in Ulster. Our rulers simply will not allow integration, so it is an unattainable will-o-the-wisp.

DEVOLUTION DANGER

Devolution is just as dangerous. The only form of devolved government on offer is one where the SDLP are given, as of right, seats in the cabinet. They will not take part in such an arrangement without a substantial role for Dublin. Even if by some strange miracle a devolved government was set up by the Unionist parties, it could be abolished by a stroke of a pen by the "superior" parliament at Westminster in 1972. So the facts are clear: the only alternative to the slow murder of loyal Ulster is INDEPENDENCE.

An independent Ulster state CAN work, provided it is run as a community benefit state in the interests of the whole population and not for a small "Fur Coat Brigade". Some sacrifices in living standards would have to be made in the short term, but this would be a worthwhile price to pay to rid our land of I.R.A. terrorism, constitutional uncertainty and the spectre of complete economic collapse. Victory can still be ours, but only if our goals are realistic and we all work to achieve them.

ULSTER NF SHOP OPEN

THE ULSTER National Front recently opened a bookshop at 134 Templemore Avenue, Belfast, BT5 4PX. Called BEACON BOOKS, the shop has a comprehensive range of National Front merchandise, including papers, magazines, T-shirts, posters, tapes and records.

The shop also stocks Loyalist journals and papers like Combat, Ulster and Ulster Defiant, as well as traditional Loyalist tapes, badges, etc.

As well as operating a fast and efficient mail order service, Beacon Books is open from 11 am - 7 pm on Monday - Friday and from 11 am - 5 pm on Saturdays. All Loyalists and visitors from over the water are welcome.

STAND BY SEAWRIGHT

MILITANT LOYALIST Councillor George Seawright was recently jailed for his active opposition to the betrayal of Ulster by the traitor, Tom King.

George received a savage sentence for his part in a demonstration against Tom King shortly after the signing of the treasonable Anglo-Irish Agreement late last year.

But if the Northern Ireland Office/Dublin Junta thought they could destroy George's spirit by jailing him, they are badly mistaken. George is in fine health and is anxious to rejoin the fight against all of Ulster's enemies - including the self-seeking Unionist "Fur Coat Brigade". These people have done nothing to help George (or his wife Elizabeth and their small children) whilst he is in prison.

All messages of support should be sent to: 340 '86 Seawright, C Wing, H Block 3, HMP Magilligan, Point Road, Magilligan, Limavady, Co. Londonderry, BT49 0LP.

Also send your pledges of solidarity to his wife, Elizabeth, who is valiantly struggling to bring up their three young children, with the added strain of coping with the regular 150 mile round trip just to see George for half an hour. Write to Mrs. E. Seawright, 20g Forthriver Road, Belfast, BT13 3SH.

SUPPORT L.P.O.W.s

AS WE near the festive season, all Loyalists should give their full support to the various welfare organisations which care for Ulster's Loyalist Prisoners. Donations are welcome to:

* Loyalist Prisoners Aid, 2a Gawn Street, Newtownards Road, Belfast, BT14 1HQ.

* Loyalist Prisoners Welfare Association, 200a Shankill Road, Belfast BT13 2BJ.

Nationalist Welfare Association (NF), 134 Templemore Avenue, Belfast, BT5 4PX.

GET SOME ACTION

LOYALIST YOUTH - This is your chance to support the Cause and make some money for yourself! Buy 20, 30 or 50 copies of National Front News and sell them to your friends and relatives, door-to-door, at football grounds, demonstrations and marches or in your local shopping area.

You buy them - in bulk - for 14p each and then sell them for their cover price of 20p. This means that you can make a substantial profit for yourself. In fact, some NFN Supporters regularly sell around 100 copies door-to-door every evening. This means they are making £6 profit every evening for just a couple of hours work!

* 10 copies cost £1.40 plus 59p p&p.

* 25 copies cost £3.50 plus £1.90 p&p.

* 50 copies cost £7.00 plus £2.35 p&p.

Just send your cheque to Beacon Books as above - or better still, save the postage by calling in to see us.
